

White Deer Run Treatment Network

White Deer Run of York

White Deer Run of York is a Drug and Alcohol Treatment Program situated in beautiful York County. WDR of York offers patients a setting conducive to recovery. Clients begin to learn increased self-awareness, gain an understanding of their interpersonal relationships, and receive an education on the disease of chemical dependency.

www.whitedeerrun.com

White Deer Run Treatment Network

Key Features for the Chemical Dependency Program

- Twelve Step Program Model
- Transportation Available
- Highly skilled, multi-disciplinary teams of professionals
- Length of stay individually determined
- Comprehensive medical evaluation
- Individual and group therapy
- Individualized aftercare plan

Program Goals

- Achieve and maintain abstinence
- Increase patient and family understanding of chemical dependency
- Gain acceptance of the disease
- Learn tools of recovery and stages of relapse
- Encourage the use of personal support groups such as NA, AA, CODA, ACOA, and Alanon

White Deer Run has been treating individuals with chemical dependency for over 30 years. Within that time, WDR has treated over 200,000 clients.

For admissions or inquiries about White Deer Run of York please call: 717-840-2308. You can also visit our website at: www.whitedeerrun.com.

“Committed to Excellence”

White Deer Run Treatment Network prioritizes for assessments for the following: pregnant injecting drug users, pregnant substance abusers, injecting substance abusers, overdose survivors, veterans, and all others

White Deer Run of York
106 Davies Dr.
York, PA 17402
Phone: 717-840-2308
Fax: 717-840-2316

